UPPER VALLY LAKE SUNAPEE REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION ANNOUNCES STRATEGIC PLANNING LISTENING SESSIONS

The Upper Valley Lake Sunapee Regional Planning Commission is undertaking a strategic planning process for the organization in order to better align community needs within the region with the services and programs the Commission offers. Last February the Commissioners of the organization met to begin the process of outlining key issues that the Commission should be addressing over the next five years. More recently, the Commission received funding from The Corporate Fund to host a number of regional listening sessions in order to receive input and feedback from communities within the region that will help guide the future of the organization. The listening sessions will be held in the following locations. All are welcome to attend any and all of the sessions throughout the region.

Tuesday, September 23rd at 5:00 pm - Mayer Room, Howe Library, Hanover

Thursday, September 25th at 4:00 pm - Newbury Town Hall, Newbury

Saturday, September 27th, 10:00 am - River Valley Community College, Claremont

Tuesday, September 30th at 6:00 pm - Canaan Town Meeting House, Canaan

Thursday, October 2nd 9:00 am - Acworth Town Hall, Acworth

*The Upper Valley Lake Sunapee Regional Planning Commission is a not-for-profit, voluntary association of 27 municipalities in western New Hampshire.
